

Each Family Preservation Case (formerly called Treatment Cases) represents a family, including one or more children, that is receiving in-home services from SCDSS as a result of a founded CPS investigation. These services are provided in an attempt to improve the well-being of the child(ren) sufficiently so that they do not have to be removed from the home to be placed in foster care.

CPS Family Preservation Services Open on the Last Day of the State Fiscal Year

Note: * indicates # is preliminary