

Blue columns record the number of reports which required an investigation by South Carolina Department of Social Services, not ALL reports received. (All reports are not investigated by SCDSS: for example, a report might not meet the legal requirements for an APS report, the report might simply require a referral to economic services, or the report might contain insufficient information for investigation.) The number of “Total Clients” includes the clients in the new reports.

