Your Rights

You have the right to:

Receive an application the same day you ask for it.

Have your application accepted immediately.

Have a person who knows your circumstances apply for you.

Request a face-to-face interview if you cannot reach the Economic Services Intake Center by phone.

Get your SNAP benefits within 30 days after you apply, if you are eligible.

Get SNAP benefits within seven days, if you are in immediate need and qualify for faster service.

Receive fair treatment regardless of age, sex, race, color, disability, religious creed, national origin or political beliefs.

Be notified in advance, if the SNAP office is going to reduce or end your benefits.

Examine your own case file and a copy of the SNAP rules.

Have a fair hearing if you disagree with any action taken on your case.
