Many children in South Carolina are hungry or uncertain about whether they will receive the food they need. Children feel, behave, and learn better if they have a wholesome snack between lunch and supper. Who will feed the children after school?
HEALTHY & EASY SNACKS
A snack consists of at least two different food items. The foods must be chosen from 2 of the following 4 groups:

- Milk
- Bread
- Fruit or vegetable or 100% Juice
- Meat

BENEFITS FOR CHILDREN
Snacks give children a nutritional boost in the afternoon when they are hungry and trying to study.
Snacks attract children into after-school programs that are safe, fun, and filled with learning opportunities.

QUALIFYING IS SIMPLE...
Afterschool programs must be sponsored by a public or private non-profit organization
OR
Private for-profit organizations may qualify if at least 25% of enrolled children receive ABC vouchers.

You must operate an after-school program for school-age children at an "area eligible" site. (Area eligible means located in the attendance area of a school in which at least 50% of the enrolled students qualify for free or reduced-price school meals.)

Your after-school program must provide educational or enrichment activities such as arts and crafts or homework assistance in a supervised environment.

Program activities must take place at the end of the school day, on weekends, or on holidays during the school year.

Snacks served to children must meet nutrition guidelines.

MINIMAL RECORD KEEPING
You will be required to maintain the following records:

- Attendance
- Meal count
- Menus
- Grocery receipts

Our staff will provide guidance on how to keep the required records at an orientation meeting. Contact us to register for our next training and see if you are eligible to participate!
