The chart below records the number of child welfare treatment cases at the end of each fiscal year. Each case represents a family, including one or more children, that is receiving in-home services in an attempt to prevent the children from being removed from the home and being placed in foster care.

CPS Treatment Cases
(# Open at the end of the Fiscal Year)

Note: * indicates # is preliminary

Accountability, Data, and Research Division (effective August 1, 2012)