

The chart below records the number of DSS Family Preservation Cases (formerly called Treatment Cases) at the end of each fiscal year. Each case represents a family, including one or more children, that is receiving in-home services in an attempt to prevent the child(ren) from being removed from the home and placed in foster care.

